The people who were instrumental in building up the church. It was originally started as a branch of Christ's Church of Bloomfield, and for a long time services were conducted by the rectors of that church.

Patrick Drury was arrested on Tuesday night by Officers Harvey and Ball. Justice Hall, after hearing the complaint, which was of creating a disturbance, advised Mr. Drury to go home.

Henry McDougall, a little son of A. B. McDougall, the undertaker, was rendered violently ill on Sunday by tasting of a mixture that his father had prepared for poisoning rats. The mixture was composed of Indian meal and "Rough on Rats."

Adam Krenrich, a resident of New St., sustained an injury to his head sometime ago by striking it against a pulley in Oakes' Mill where he was employed. He was taken sick shortly after and died last Tuesday night. Deceased was a member of Olive Branch Lodge L. O. O. F. and William S. Pierson Post, G. A. R.

John M. Wheeler Post of Montclair, and Bartlett Post of Caldwell, will be present at the dedication of the Soldiers' Burial Plot on the morning of Memorial Day. Contributions of flowers will be gratefully accepted by Wm. S. Pierson Post. They may be sent to the Post rooms in Unanget's Hall, Glenwood Ave., early on the morning of the 30th. The dedication will take place in the morning. Rev. John A. Monroe, Rev. E. D. Simons and Dr. George C. Selbert will take part in the services.

The second Sunday under the High Lows was so far as could be ascertained as fully observed by the school-keepers as the first. As much cannot be said for a certain portion of the community who displayed their contempt for law and order by gathering around the beer keg in various localities and having what they termed a party. It would be well for the community if the police were instructed to disperse all such gatherings.

A serious accident happened to a little son of Mr. Chas. Leybrook on Monday. The story is that the Leybrook boy and a boy named Bennett were throwing stones at one another in the morning. One of the missiles struck a boy named Neville. In a fit of passion he rushed at Leybrook and kicked him in the abdomen causing serious internal injuries. The wounded boy was conveyed to his home in the Brick Row on Bloomfield avenue, and medical attendance summoned. His condition is critical.

Washington and Albert Lee, children of Thomas Lee, a hatter, were taken in charge by Officer Smith last Tuesday on a charge of breaking windows and otherwise injuring the property of residents in the vicinity of Newark avenue. They were given a hearing before Judge Kilpatrick and ordered sent to the Reform School. County Clerk Smith and others nearby are interested in the little fellows and will endeavor to have them placed in the City Home in preference to the reform institution. Mr. Lee, who is a native of England, was at one time a man in highly respectable circumstances. His friends deeply deplore the course he has pursued of late years which has brought him to a downward course.

The Essex County Building and Loan Association has recently opened its fourth series of stock. The subscriptions to that series have reached in the month that it has been open, the number of seven hundred and fifty-five shares, being the largest number taken in the same time in any of the four series. The Association has now two thousand and two hundred and forty-one shares subscribed for in its four series, and in receipt of a monthly income from dues and interest of over $2500. The subscriptions to the fourth series puts this Association among the largest in Essex County, and its growth has been exceptionally rapid. Despite the constantly increasing supply of loanable funds, the Association has no difficulty thus far in keeping all its money well invested in excellent mortgages, having loaned over $9000 at its last meeting. The subscriptions for shares in the mechanics and laboring men of the vicinity shows that this Association is fulfilling the object of such institutions in providing homes for its members, and the number taken shows their confidence in the exceptionally able and conservative management. This Association is an institution that Bloomfield may well be proud of.

Glen Ridge Notes.

The inquiry for land and houses at Glen Ridge continues active and rumors of several new houses are in the air.

Mrs. Phineas J. Ward has in bloom an exceedingly beautiful night-blooming cereus which has been greatly admired by all who have seen it.

Children's day will be observed at the Glen Ridge Congregational Church on the second Sunday in June. Here will be simple but appropriate services.

The Glen Ridge Church has received its new chairs and the mutilation of the station of which some complaint has been made will be remedied by next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Smith have moved into their new house on the corner of Ridgewood and Snowden streets, and express themselves as much pleased with it.

The lawn tennis grounds of the Glen Ridge Club are being put in good order, and it is hoped that the members of the club and their families will keep them in constant use this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. White celebrated the birthday of their daughter Marion, yesterday, by a children's party at their home on Snowden street. A number of the neighboring children were invited and the little folks had a grand time.

Miss Northall's School in the old homestead is a great success. The rooms are comfortable and the children enjoy the large and well shaded grounds. It is an ideal spot for a school and from all reports Miss Northall's is an ideal school.

The building up of that part of Glen Ridge north of Bloomfield avenue, seems to be making rapid strides. The Greenwood to render a station, on the Greenwood, is a desirable. The policy of the Company as understood is to encourage private improvement along its line, and this is one way to do it.

The Ladies' Sewing Society of the Glen Ridge Congregational Church was held at the house of Mrs. Firing on Wednesday of this week. Despite the inclement weather, upwards of twenty ladies were present and a very pleasant afternoon was spent.

The whole township is benefited by the money invested in the Building and Loan Associations.

Watessing Notes.

The Watessing club will play the Solos on Saturday.

The improvements on Prospect street will cost about $1200 before they are complete.

The Jefferson street line of Orange Valley will play the Bowery boys of Bloomfield, on Saturday.

William Irwin and Willard Beebe have been elected to membership in Prospect Hose Company.

Mrs. Louis Schlieff has offered to sell to the Library Association, a building lot on Watessing avenue near the railroad.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Free Library Association was held on Monday night.

John Calvin, a laborer, got to fighting in a Bloomfield horse-car Saturday night. Justice Widman of Newark fined him $20.

A meeting was held in St. Paul's P. E. Church on Thursday night to discuss the advisability of moving the church to the corner of Reushaw avenue and Prospect street.

Roger H. Butterworth, the newly married member of Prospect Hose Company, treated his fellow members to a luncheon at the Company's rooms on Monday night.

The coal consumers will rejoice to hear that Mr. Chas. Murray is again well supplied with Lehigh coal. He has received a consignment of 1,000 tons from the Jodio mines.

The refusal of the East Orange Town Committee to place a first class at the Disposal work, indicates that the influence of the Prospect Hose Company has waned since Dr. A. H. Van Riper left.

Prospect Hose Company elected the following officers on Monday night: Chas. Bradley, President; L. P. Quimby, Vice-President; John Knight, Secretary; Alonzo G. Hyde, Treasurer; Joseph Lee, Foreman; John Gurling, Assistant Foreman; William Cardwell, Edward Christerson, Louis Smith, Joseph E. E. and Edwin Smith, Trustees.

The domestic tranquility of the neighborhood is very much disturbed at present, owing to the frequent brawls between neighbors who keep chickens and neighbors who plant gardens. It is very aggravating to have your neighbor's chickens come in your yard, garden or no garden. There should be a law depriving people whose territorial limits are confined to a fifty ft. front lot of the privilege of keeping chickens.

Fairview and Silver Lake.

Mr. C. L. Potter has been elected superintendent of the Silver Lake Sunday School.

Mr. Fred Mohrman will take charge of the Gospel Mission in Montgomery school-house.

The work of laying gas-mains on Berkeley avenue and Franklin street has been commenced.

The cinder walks on Berkeley and Newark avenues were paved by the Fairview Improvement Association.

The Silver Lake and Fairview people are getting tired of seeing the Sunday School meet in a pigeon-coop-like grocery hall, and hail with pleasure the suggestion of building a church in a central location, such as the corner of Newark avenue and Harrison street would be. The Baptist Church, which has charge of the Silver Lake field, we understand, has the project under consideration. Mr. Joseph B. Maxwell, chairman of the Fairview Improvement Association, will probably interest all lovers of the high-class drama.
